SET DATES FOR TOWN'S 200TH ANNIVERSARY

ternal organizations in McSherrystown have launched initial plans fon a week-long celebration next year to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the founding of the Adams County community on November 14, 1763.

Persons attending the first planning session Monday night in the Knights of Columbus home chose the week of August 4-11 as the time for the bicentennial celebration, named Lewis Klunk as general chairman and voted to incorporate as a nonprofit organization to be known as McSherrystown Bicentennial, Inc. The unit will maintain offices at 338 Main St.

Selected to serve on the executive committee were Francis Redheadquarters chairman; Stanley Mummert, treasurer, and Madge Groft, secretary.

CANCER JURY BEING CHARGED

PITTSBURGH (AP)-Both sides have presented their final summations in a trial in which a Pittsburgh carpenter is suing Liggett & Myers Cobacco Co., claiming the firm's Cheste field cigarettes gave him lung cancer.

Judge John L. Miller of U. S. District Court was scheduled to charge the jury today and then the panel of eight women and four men was to begin deliberations. James P. McArdle, attorney for Otto Pritchard, 64, asked the jury

Wednesday to award Pritchard $213,000 in damages.

HAD WARNINGS

McArdle said, "Our medical experts said cigarette smoking is the cause of lung cancer. The defense's experts said it might be a cause, but that isn't proven, and there might be some other factor

"Under the law, as distinguished from medicine, cigarette smoking does not have to be the exclusive cause. It only has to be a substantial cause

Liggett & Myers' counsel William H. Eckert said in his closing argument:

"Pritchard smoked more cigarettes than were good for him. His own mother told him, when he was 14, that he should not smoke and he did not listen to her. His wife later told him he smoked too much and he paid no attention to Pritchard contends he got cancer of the right lung by smoking Chesterfields steadily from the 1920s until 1953 when the lung was removed.

Lewis is still around, still active as president emeritus of the LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The United Mine Workers Union, priman as vice president. But he's dent Tom Kennedy, at 75, has been ailing for some time.

Coal labor relations, at least in 1950.

There have been constant trouparticularly in eastern Kentucky and eastern Tennessee, who have balked at paying the 40-cent a ton welfare royalty in the face of slack demand and declining prices. The UMW welfare fund. in turn, has had to reduce pensions and take steps to dispose of a chain of mine area hospitals.

OTHER UMW TROUBLES Among other UMW troubles are the fact that non-union coal production has risen from 20 to 27 per cent of the total and that union membership has continued to dwindle until it now is only

Former Banker Is Fined $1,000

PITTSBURCH (AP)-A former Punxsutawney banker and school official was fined $1,000 and placed on five years probation Wednesday on charges of embezzling $8,000 in school funds.

Harold F. Divelbiss was sentenced by Judge Edward Dumbauld in U. S. District Court after pleading no defense to five counts. Divelbiss formerly was treasurer of the Punxsutawney School District and assistant cashier of the Punxsutawney National Bank. The government said he withheld school district funds deposited at the bank. Canada geese mate for life and show great concern for one an-

KING-SIZE BEAUTYREST

You'll never rest your best while half the night must be spent struggling to maintain your share of a double bed. Even on a 50-50 basis that share makes for skimpy sleeping. What to do about it? We suggest you make the switch to King-Size Beautyrest to get the extra length, the extra width, the extra comfort you both need to again sleep as sound as babies.

Yes, an extra 105 square inches of sleeping area means even more of that famous Beautyrest individual coil construction to lull you to sleep, more of that firm, buoyant, non-sag support. Why not sleep right tonight on a King-Size Beautyrest made only by Simmons?

H. Schayler Bradt Jr., 53, a former writer and artist from New York, is also in San Jose, designing brochures that show in the simplest possible terms how to clean house or sell eggs or build a cabinet

Crawford, Laawand Bradt are three of only 12 North American technicians who make up the staff of the American International Association for Economic and Social Development (AIA).

The AIA is sort of a private Peace Corps, sponsored by the Rockefeller brothers, which has been working for the past 16 years with the desperately poor and restive rural masses of Latin

In a way the AIA also is a small-scale model for the Alliance for Progress, President Kennedy's multibillion dollar program for aid to American countries south of the border.

WANT IMPROVEMENT

"The rural people, the campesinos, are a critical problem in Latin America," says John R. Camp, the soft-spoken, 52-yearold Ohioan who is executive vice president of the AIA.

"These people are demanding a better way of living. In years past, out of ignorance, they didn't know that others lived so well Now they do. They want improvement

"If they don't get it, they may resort to political means to attain their needs" - which, in Latin America, often is synonymous with revolution.

Camp, a veteran of 20 years in South America, draws this picture of a typical campesino:

He is one of five or six members of a family living in a rancho of adobe blocks or mud plastered over a bamboo frame. The rancho has a thatched roof and a dirt

He raises corn or manioc (a potato-like vegetable) on a two or three acre family farm, keeping most of it for family consumption and selling the rest to a local store or a passing trucker.

In some Latin nations, his income is as low as $100 a year, which goes to keep the family in basic clothing and, occasionally, to purchase a new hand tool with which to work the farm.

EDUCATION FOR CHILDREN He has one great goal.

"He wants an education for his children," says Camp. "He wants to see that they are better off than he. He wants them to have more to eat, better clothes, the opportunities that he missed.

Dump Bill For Devil's Jump Dam

SOMERSET Ky. (AP) - The asking for a clarification. devil was jumping from hilltop to hilltop, scattering boulders to make things hard for farmers. His apron strings broke, spilling all the rocks into the South Fork of the Cumberland River and giving the name to Devil's Jump, according to Kentucky legend.

House-Senate conferees found a rocky path to compromise on the Omnibus Water Projects appropriations bill before eliminating a proposed dam at Devil's Jump on the final day of the 87th Congress.

WHEN I MADE UP MY

WATCH THEM IMITATE THIS ONE!

This is the look of things to come in modern motor car styling.

It's the 1963 Cadillac-a motor car so beautiful and so tempting it is difficult to resist. The new look in Cadillacs combines formality and youthfulness, majesty and vigor in a way that is predictably trend-setting. And it belongs to Cadillac alone. You won't see any others with that sweeping expanse of hood and deck that gives the 1963 Cadillac its unique look of vitality and power.

And its discerning use of chrome and adornment welcomes a new purity of form in automotive design.

100 BUFORD AVENUE

Of course, there's a great deal more than styling in this new Cadillac that is worthy of emulation.

There are Cadillac's beautiful and luxurious new interiors-and Cadillac's remarkable new performance-and Cadillac's unprecedented choice of personal appointments and accessories-and Cadillac's unrivaled dependability and value.

Cadillac is now more clearly than ever before the Standard of the World.

The thing to do is to see and drive one of the twelve brilliant new models and get the whole Cadillac story for 1963. And for a full year at the wheel, do it before another week goes by.
